

IMAGESOURCE NAMED 2006 PREMIER PARTNER OF THE YEAR BY FUJITSU IMAGING PRODUCTS GROUP

OLYMPIA, WA, Feb. 12, 2007 – ImageSource, a leading provider of content management solutions and professional services, proudly announced today that it was named Premier Partner of the Year, Western Region, for 2006 by Fujitsu Computer Products of America, a market leader in document imaging scanners and services.

ImageSource was presented the prestigious award for its advanced integration, service expertise and consistent Fujitsu scanner and service revenue growth within the Western region of the United States throughout 2006. The award was presented during a private ceremony at the 5th annual One Capture Alliance Premier Partner Conference, held January 24-26 in Coconut Grove, Florida.

Recognized for the sixth year in a row as the Western Region top-performing reseller, distributor and integrator, the premier partner award specifically acknowledges ImageSource's commitment to innovation that results in world-class business performance.

"We have long enjoyed our partnership with Fujitsu and are honored to receive this award. It reflects our continued efforts to bring the best possible document imaging products and services to our Customer Partners," said Terry Sutherland, Chief Executive Officer of ImageSource. "We've been successful with the Fujitsu product line because it meets the specific demands of a wide range of organizations across all vertical markets. We'd like to take this opportunity to thank each of our Customer Partners utilizing Fujitsu technologies for the opportunity to integrate superior technologies, bringing value to your unique business practices."

"2006 was a great year to be a part of the Enterprise Content Management industry and we have our valued partners to thank for that," said Victor Kan, Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Imaging Products Group, Fujitsu Computer Products of America, Inc. "InfoTrends, in its North American Document Imaging Scanner Forecast report, stated that the market for document imaging scanners continues to be dynamic with very high growth rates and innovative new products. We're looking forward to working with our channel partners to continue the success from this past year."
